Your Window into Virginia Politics

2023 Annual Report

MISSION

Elevate public understanding of Virginia politics by organizing and presenting public information in ways that are easily accessible to all and free of partisan bias.

IMPACT

VPAP's unique, nonpartisan approach is supported by Republicans and Democrats alike. Our work has won awards from numerous organizations, including the Virginia Coalition for Open Government, the Wilder School of Public Policy at VCU and the Society of Professional Journalists.

Letter from the Board Chair

Dear Supporters and Friends:

As we reflect on 2023, I am most proud that throughout VPAP's first leadership transition, our dedicated team continued to find new ways to elevate public understanding. It would not have been possible without the unwavering support from the VPAP community. For that, I thank each and every one of you.

Together, we have achieved remarkable milestones that made political information in Virginia easier to find and understand. I am excited to share some key highlights that mark the dawn of a new era for our organization.

First and foremost, I want to express our profound gratitude to David Poole for his 26 years of dedicated service as our Founder and Executive Director. His vision for transparent, public information has made Virginia the envy of other states. Before he left, he worked to ensure a smooth transition to our new campaign finance application. I am happy to report the new system was delivered on time and on budget!

On July 1, we welcomed Chris Piper as Executive Director. Chris' 20 years of experience in campaign finance, elections, and government ethics has already led the VPAP team to innovate in new ways.

We are excited to share our Bridge Strategic Plan. It will guide our work in 2024 to reach more Virginians, expand the scope of our website to include federal contributions, and fortify our infrastructure for long-term growth.

In addition to these developments, I am thrilled to announce the creation of the Olson Poole Civics Education Fund. This fund, named in honor of David Poole and the late Bill Olson, is a testament to our commitment to advancing civics education in Virginia. The seed money for the fund was generously provided by Bill Olson, and we are now seeking to match his gift with an additional $170,000.

Together, we are laying the foundation for a new era at VPAP. Thank you for being part of the VPAP community – your confidence and support make it possible to find new ways to elevate public understanding.

Warm regards,

Abigail Farris Rogers, Board Chair

Introducing the Olson Poole Civics Education Fund

We take great pride in sharing the newly established Olson Poole Civics Education Fund, a tribute to the late Bill Olson and the esteemed founder of VPAP, David M. Poole. This fund stands as a testament to VPAP's unwavering commitment to advancing civic education.

In perfect harmony with VPAP's enduring dedication to transparency, accessibility, and civic engagement, this initiative sets the stage for a brighter and more informed future for the citizens of Virginia.

Announcing VPAP's 2024 Bridge Strategic Plan

As we dive into the dynamic landscape of 2024, VPAP's Strategic Bridge Plan unfolds as a roadmap to elevate our impact.

VPAP is dedicated to staying at the forefront for political and governmental leaders, lobbyists, and individuals who weave our data into the fabric of their daily lives. We're on a mission to captivate the attention of Virginia's diverse citizens. From the ardent political enthusiasts glued to every development, to those seeking occasional updates, and even those who are primarily engaged during election cycles, VPAP has tailored strategies for everyone.

To see the full 2024 Strategic Bridge Plan, visit our website or scan the code.

Here's a high-level view:

Goal 1

Broaden and enhance the way in which we present information to the public.

Goal 2

Diversify funding sources.

Goal 3

Strengthen our internal processes and staffing infrastructure.

Goal 4

Prepare for the sustainability and long-term growth of VPAP.

Thank you to our 2023 supporters.
